11. HANDICAP INDEX

All sailors will be competing together. Class F18 will be scored separately. Upon completion of the registration at the first skippers meeting, RC will decide whether any other class should be scored separately.

Each skipper who participate in the class F18 must present a valid F18 class measurement.

Each skipper in the application must specify the class of racing, the manufacturer and type of catamaran, number of crew, and handicap.

Scoring is made by ISAF handicap system for small catamarans, published in March 2018 or later: <http://www.schrs.com/ratings.php>

Rankings are calculated according to the corrected time. If the boat is not in its original condition (hulls, sails, mast, rudder, etc.) or is self made must be accompanied by a certificate of conformity class.

12. SAILING INSTRUCTIONS

Sailing instructions will be available at the first skippers meeting. Official confirmation of the navigation with rounding Lighthouse Blitvenica will take place on the first skippers meeting. Preliminary decision will be known on Wednesday, 23rd of May. In order to go to Blitvenica, 5kts of constant wind is required. For the safety reasons, wind must not exceed 18kts or more.

13. COURSE

Racing area will be marked on the map. Long distance navigations are scheduled, depending of the weather conditions. Also, possible are different courses and round robins.

14. SCORING

After completion of 4 (four) races one will reject the worst result. Navigation and round robins scores the same. If the contestants share the same number of points, the number of better places will count, and if it will be tie, final race will count. There is no maximum number of the daily races. The race is valid if 1 (one) navigation is regular, or 3 (three) round robins.

15. ACCOMMODATION OF THE BOATS

The area for the catamarans will be marked at the marina in the Lovišća bay (Holiday Resort Jezera Village), near the dinghy slip. There is an alternative possibility for the accommodation of the boats in the harbour of Jezera city. Competitors will be informed together with the confirmation of the event on 23rd of April.

16. ACCOMMODATION FOR THE COMPETITORS

The organizer has provided accommodation at promotional prices for all participants in the Holiday Resort "Jezera Village".
